Quad City Botanical Center Field Trip Menu

Must Do Experiences

Sun Garden Tour
Tour our stunning tropical atrium.
(See, Hear, Touch)

Greenhouse Tour/Planting
Students plant their own plant to take home & learn to care for them.
(See, Hear, & Do)

Interesting Content

Carnivorous Plants
Introduction to the fascinating world of meat-eating plants
(See & Hear)

Butterflies
Learn about butterflies and their life cycle
(See & Hear)

Hands-On Fun for All Ages!

An Ant's Life
Learn about ants; explore which foods attract different types of ants
(See, Hear, & Explore)

Worms! & Vermicomposting
Learn about worms, vermicomposting, and hold live worms
(See, Hear, & Touch)

3rd Grade & Up

Water Cycle
Discover how water moves in our environment; Interactive game
(See, Hear, Do)

Book Centered Learning

Tops and Bottoms
Hare & Bear grow crops in this trickster tale; students do hands on puzzle
(See, Hear, & Do)

The Very Hungry Caterpillar
Learn about insect metamorphosis with a focus on counting and color
(See, Hear, & Do)

The Lorax
Come explore environmentalism through the legend of the Lorax
(See, Hear)

Seasonal

Spring Flowers:
(Spring Only)

Magnificent Monarchs
(Fall Only)

Insect Investigation
(Spring, Summer, & Fall)

Special Requests

Is your class learning about a specific nature or environment related topic?

We love to teach lessons catered to you!

Please ask and we can see if it is feasible.

Contact

Kate Witherspoon (309) 794-0991 EXT: 205
learn@qcgardens.com